YOUR EDUCATION. YOUR PATHWAY.

For more than 230 years, Cheshire Academy has been transforming lives and shaping futures. On our 104-acre campus nestled in the heart of a charming New England town, you won't just attend classes for four years and pick up a diploma. You'll discover your personal pathway to who you are going to become.

At our day and boarding school, one of the oldest in the country, it's rare for two students to have the exact same schedule. You tailor your courses and activities to your talents, your passions, your potential. You may dream of embarking on a career in the arts or sciences, competing on a Division I college team, or understanding the world and your role in it. Here, you'll discover the perfect environment for building a responsible, engaged life.

Welcome to CHESHIRE ACADEMY — where you write your own story.

YOU BELONG.

Belonging at Cheshire Academy is about showing up exactly as you are and finding your people — whether it's cooking a family recipe at the international food festival, teaming up with the backstage crew at the spring musical, bonding over late-night study sessions in the library, or the surprising connection you make with someone from another continent.

At Cheshire Academy, you'll call day and boarding students friends and find clubs and organizations that match your commitment to the things that matter to you.

Elevate your game on and off the field.

Nearly every Cheshire Academy student enjoys competitive and recreational athletics, learning leadership, sportsmanship, and the rules of the game — whether it's lacrosse or life. And student athletes with their sights on what's next engage in regular networking opportunities with college representatives, complemented by the wrap-around support they need from caring coaches, faculty, and on-site athletic training and strength and conditioning.

Our full range of athletic facilities includes two turf fields, a collegiate-level football field, six-lane track, nine tennis courts, and a newly refurbished Field House. From our fields to specialized training rooms, every space is designed to help student-athletes excel.
